Conditions for membership

The Edwards Air Force Base Restoration Advisory Board is a voluntary organization.

Restoration Advisory Board members are expected to attend all meetings. Meetings will be held at least quarterly, if not more often. Members will also be expected to attend training.

Duties and responsibilities will include reviewing and commenting on technical documents, and talking to friends and colleagues about activities associated with the environmental cleanup program at Edwards Air Force Base. Members must be available to community members and groups to facilitate the exchange of information and/or concerns between the community and the Restoration Advisory Board.

Members' phone numbers and other contact information will be provided to the public. A minimum of one telephone number or e-mail address is required.

Member terms and other rules are set by the Restoration Advisory Board.

Priority for Restoration Advisory Board membership will be given to citizens that are impacted or affected by the cleanup operations at Edwards Air Force Base. Selection of individuals for the Restoration Advisory Board will be with the goal of diversity in mind.

If you have any questions or comments, contact Gary Hatch, Chief of Environmental Public Affairs, at (661) 277-1454 or e-mail gary.hatch@edwards.af.mil.
